York, Foss Islands Retail Park, Unit 1

The food WAREHOUSE open in the former Homesense unit

The food WAREHOUSE has opened their second store in York.

The unit of 15,037 sq ft was formerly occupied by Homesense who relocated to Monks Cross, York where they have been trading alongside their sister brand TKMaxx since July 2020.

Iceland carried out a major refurbishment of the unit and opened the food WAREHOUSE on 27 July 2021.

Gregory Moore Property and METIS Real Estate Advisors acted for the landlord, and Iceland were represented by XPROP.
